BAST CLEVELAND SANITARY FESTIVAL. festival for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission was held at the Wright House in East Cleveland, on Thursday evening last. The proprietor of the hotel generously threw open his rooms and cooking-apparatus to the use of the Committee, and the ladies of our patriotic suburb, with their accustomed promptitude and liberality, took the matter In hand and got up a spleaded supper on very short polles. The entertainment was an entire suncers, both financially and socially, -so much so indeed that another gathering of the same sort will soon come off at the Jackson House, the proprietor having made the same generous offer that was made by the landlerd of the Wright House. East Cleveland is always "up to the mark."
